Murray crashes out on day one

Andy Murray's assault on the 2008 Australian Open came to a premature end when he became the first major seed to exit the tournament, which started in Melbourne on Monday.

Jo-Wilfried Tsonga defeated the No. 9 seed 75 64 06 76(5) in a match lasting three hours 14 minutes. Murray came to Melbourne following victory at the Qatar Open and with a realistic hope of improving on his fourth round exit last year. However, the British No. 1 succumbed to the 22-year-old Frenchman, ranked 38 in the world, who will now face American Sam Warburg in the second round. Other seeds to fall on day one included Carlos Moya and Juan Ignacio Chela.

A record crowd of 55,855 flocked to Melbourne Park to witness the opening day of the first Grand Slam of 2008. The No. 2 seed Rafael Nadal overcame a spirited challenge from Viktor Troicki 76(3) 75 61 to advance to the next round. The 21-year-old Serbian was a break up in the second set before the Spaniard asserted his authority on the match and put an end to Troicki's first Grand Slam attempt. Andy Roddick, who won the Kooyong Classic last week for the third time, cruised into the next round following a 63 64 75 victory over Czech qualifier Lukas Dlouhy. Another seed to advance in straight sets was Nikolay Davydenko who defeated Michael Llodra 75 75 63. Seeds Richard Gasquet, Tommy Robredo and Mikhail Youzhny also progressed.

Defending champion Serena Williams stormed through following a straight sets victory over Jarmila Gajdosova and top seed and World No.1 Justine Henin, who didn't compete here last year, made light work of her Japanese opponent Aiko Nakamura 62 62. No. 5 seed Maria Sharapova defeated Jelena Kostanic Tosicin straight sets to set up an enticing clash with Lindsay Davenport, whose first round victory saw her surpass Steffi Graf's 20-year record to become the biggest prize money-winner in women's sport.

No. 3 seed Jelena Jankovic faced a tough challenge in the form of Austrian teenager Tamira Paszek. The Serbian saved three match points and came back from 4-1 down in the final set to take victory 26 62 1210 in a match which lasted over three hours.

It has been 32 years since the home nation won the Australian Open men's singles title and the Australian contingent will be out in force on day two, led by No. 19 seed Lleyton Hewitt. Tuesday also sees Roger Federer start the defence of his Australian Open title against Argentine Diego Hartfield. Federer is attempting to become the third man in history to win a hat-trick of Australian Open titles. Novak Djokovic and last year's beaten finalist Fernando Gonzalez also start their campaigns.

In the women's draw, world No. 2 Svetlana Kuznetsova will be in action as she takes on former Australian Open semifinalist Nathalie Dechy. Seeds Ana Ivanovic, Anna Chakvetadze, Venus Williams and Daniela Hantuchova will also take to the courts.

East Africa Zonal Championships - Burundi

The second East Africa Zonal Championships closed in Bujumbura, Burundi over the weekend with the home nation winning the event. The host nation showed depth en-route to clinching the team trophy with 710 points, Ethiopia finished second with 450 points. The tournament is a regional qualifying event for the Africa Junior Championships to be played later this year in Gaborone, Botswana. Players can qualify as part of a team or individually if they finish in the top five of their age category.

A total of nine out of the 11 invited countries took part. The tournament kicked off with a round-robin format with players qualifying for the quarterfinals where a feed in system draw was used. In the 14 & under boys' singles, home favourite Ndayishimiye Hassan defeated Adam Noureldin from Sudan in straights sets 62 64. The Ethiopian girls continued their dominance in the region as Meron Getu defeated compatriot Micheal Semira 63 64.

In the 16 & under girls' singles, there were no surprises as Anne-Sophie Rufyikiri (BDI) finished first in a round-robin group featuring nine girls. The closest challenge for Rufyikiri came from Nicole Zachariah from Kenya who finished second. The boys section saw an all-Burundian battle between Ndayisenga Idrissa and Kagoma Amadi, with Kagoma succumbing to the relentless pressure of Idrissa 64 61.

West & Central African Championships - Abuja

Players from Nigeria came out on top of the nations ranking at the West & Central African Junior Championships held at the National Stadium of Abuja, Nigeria last week. Nigeria's Samuel Omoile and Benin Tunde Segodo won the 14 & under and 16 & under boys' singles respectively, while Ornella Frere and Catina Gamo from the Cameroon led the girls field.

Fourty boys and 29 girls from 11 countries competed at the Championships, which were organised by the Nigerian Tennis Federation and the ITF/CAT. The top six players per age group plus one ITF/CAT wildcard will qualify for the 30th ITF/CAT African Junior Championships to be held on 9-14 April in Botswana.

The event was attended by the president of the Gambia Tennis Federation, who commented, "I am impressed by the facilities, the quality of the organisation, the level of the matches and the fair play atmosphere between all the teams."
