*NB: The Men's Singles draws have not been filled to draw size capacity.

The ITF Wheelchair Committee has considered the Bipartite Applications, considering the maximum entry limit per NPC. According to the regulations, an NPC can nominate up to two male and two female athletes for the Men's and Women's singles events, respectively, and a maximum of two athletes for the Quad singles event.

The Committee also considered the world ranking and classification status of players nominated for Bipartite invitations. Insufficient Bipartite Applications which met the criteria outlined in the qualification criteria were received to complete the Men's event, hence the draw size quota has not been filled.

The Committee decided against exercising their discretion to lift the maximum number of players per nation and application rule, even though it leaves the draw unfilled.
