

2025 AUSTRALIAN OPEN MEN'S SINGLES FINAL NOTES Sunday 26 January

NO. 1 JANNIK SINNER (ITA) v NO. 2 ALEXANDER ZVEREV (GER)

Player	Age	Ranking	Tour-level titles won	Best Australian Open performance	Best Grand Slam performance
No. 1 Jannik Sinner (ITA)	23	1	18	Won title 2024	Won 2024 Australian Open, 2024 US Open
No. 2 Alexander Zverev (GER)	27	2	23	Final 2025	RU 2020 US Open, 2024 Roland Garros; Final 2025 Australian Open

A 3rd Grand Slam title for Sinner...

Jannik Sinner is aiming to win his 2nd consecutive Australian Open title, after recovering from 0-2 down to defeat Daniil Medvedev in 5 sets in the final here last year to win his first Grand Slam title. He won his 2nd major title at the 2024 US Open, defeating Taylor Fritz in the final, and is now bidding to win his 3rd Grand Slam title here. Should he do so, he will become the first Italian player in history, man or woman, to win 3 major titles – surpassing Nicola Pietrangeli's mark of 2 Grand Slam singles titles. Sinner would also become the 15th man in the Open Era to win multiple Australian Open titles and the 11th man in the Open Era to retain the title here.

... or a major breakthrough for Zverev?

Alexander Zverev is aiming to win his first Grand Slam title in his 3rd appearance in the final at a major, having finished runner-up to Dominic Thiem at the 2020 US Open and to Carlos Alcaraz at 2024 Roland Garros. Zverev will become the 5th German player in history to win a Grand Slam men's singles title if he defeats Sinner today – and the first since Boris Becker won his 6th major title at the 1996 Australian Open. He is contesting his 36th Grand Slam event here and will go joint-2nd on the Open Era list for most attempts before winning a first Grand Slam title if he wins here, alongside Stan Wawrinka and behind Goran Ivanisevic.

Prize money

Tonight's champion receives $3,500,000 (AUD) in prize money, while the runner-up collects $1,900,000. In total, the prize fund for the men's singles at the 2025 Australian Open is $33,108,000 (AUD).

Rankings update

Sinner and Zverev will remain as the world No. 1 and world No. 2, respectively, when the new rankings are published on Monday, regardless of the result in tonight's final.

Projected ATP Top 10 (Monday 27 January)

Rank	Player	Points
1.	Jannik Sinner	Win: 11830 / Lose: 11130
2.	Alexander Zverev	Win: 8835 / Lose 8135
3.	Carlos Alcaraz	7010
4.	Taylor Fritz	5050
5.	Casper Ruud	4160
6.	Novak Djokovic	3900
7.	Daniil Medvedev	3780
8.	Alex de Minaur	3735
9.	Tommy Paul	3495
10.	Andrey Rublev	3130

A successful defence...

If Sinner wins a 2nd consecutive Australian Open men's singles title, he will become the 11th player in the Open Era to retain the Australian Open men's singles title. It would also be the 15th occasion in the Open Era that the Australian Open men's singles title has been successfully defended, with Novak Djokovic and Roger Federer both having retained the title here on multiple occasions.

... or a new name on the trophy?

If Zverev wins his first title here, he will become the 28th player in the Open Era to win the Australian Open men's singles title. He would also become the 13th player in the Open Era to win his first Grand Slam men's singles title at the Australian Open – and the 5th player to do so since 2000, after Thomas Johansson (2002), Djokovic (2008), Wawrinka (2014) and Sinner (2024).

No. 1 v No. 2

This is the 12th time in the Open Era that the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds have met in the Australian Open men's singles final – and the first time since 2019, when No. 1 Djokovic defeated No. 2 Rafael Nadal. In the previous 11 men's singles finals between the Top 2 seeds in the Open Era here, No. 1 seeds have won on 7 occasions (1982, 1993, 2000, 2009, 2012, 2016 and 2019) and No. 2 seeds have won on 4 occasions (1975, January 1977, 1992 and 1995).

This is the 52nd time in the Open Era that the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds have met in a Grand Slam men's singles final – and the first time since 2023 Wimbledon, when No. 1 Carlos Alcaraz defeated No. 2 Djokovic. Of the previous 51 Grand Slam men's singles finals between the Top 2 seeds in the Open Era, No. 1 seeds have won on 26 occasions and No. 2 seeds have won on 25 occasions.

Australian Open final appearances

By reaching the final here, Sinner has become the 23rd player in the Open Era to reach the Australian Open men's singles final on 2 or more occasions – and the 3rd active player to do so, after Djokovic and Medvedev.

Having reached the final here for the first time, Zverev has become the 7th active player to reach an Australian Open men's singles final. He is the 57th man in the Open Era – and the 106th in history – to reach the final here.

A 7th meeting for Sinner and Zverev, their 5th on hard court and their 4th at a Grand Slam. Zverev leads the overall head-to-head (4-2) and also leads the head-to-head on hard courts (3-1) and at the Grand Slams (2-1). This is the pair's first meeting in the final of a tournament. Their 3 previous Grand Slam meetings all came in the round of 16.

Zverev v world No. 1

Zverev is bidding to defeat a world No. 1 for the first time since the 2021 ATP Finals, when he defeated No. 1 Djokovic in the semifinals. He has lost both matches he has contested against No. 1-ranked players since then – to Carlos Alcaraz in the quarterfinals at the 2023 US Open and to Sinner in the semifinals at Cincinnati-1000 last year. He has a 4-9 win-loss record against world No. 1s but has lost all 4 matches he has contested against No. 1 ranked players at the Grand Slams.

Top 5 match-ups

This is the first match between a pair of Top 5 players at the Australian Open this year. Both Sinner and Zverev are contesting their 6th matches against a Top 5 player here.

Sinner defeated 3 Top 5 players in consecutive rounds to win the title here last year, having previously lost the first 8 matches he had contested against Top 5 players at the Grand Slams – he defeated No. 5 Andrey Rublev in the quarterfinals, No. 1 Djokovic in the semifinals and No. 3 Medvedev in the final. He has a 3-2 win-loss record against Top 5 players at the Australian Open overall and has a 4-10 win-loss record against Top 5 players at the Grand Slams, with his only other victory coming against No. 5 Medvedev in the quarterfinals at the US Open last year.

Sinner is bidding to extend a 5-match winning streak against Top 5 players. He has not lost to a Top 5 player at Tour-level since falling to No. 3 Alcaraz in the final at Beijing last year. He has a 22-24 win-loss record against Top 5 players at Tour-level overall.

Zverev is bidding to defeat a Top 5 player at a Grand Slam for the 2nd time. He has a 1-12 win-loss record against Top 5 players at the Grand Slams, with his only victory coming against No. 2 Alcaraz in the quarterfinals here last year. He lost the 4 other matches he has contested against Top 5 players at the Australian Open.

Zverev won 2 of the 7 matches he contested against Top 5 players in 2024, with his only victories coming against No. 2 Alcaraz in the quarterfinals here and against No. 3 Alcaraz in the group stage at the ATP Finals. He has a 26-43 win-loss record against Top 5 players at Tour-level overall.

- Sinner is bidding to win his 17th Tour-level singles title on a hard court and claim sole ownership of 3rd place on the list for most Tour-level titles on hard courts among active players, ahead of Marin Cilic. (see table on page 3)
- Sinner is bidding to record his 21st consecutive Tour-level match-win and extend his longest Tour-level winning streak. He has not lost a match since falling to Carlos Alcaraz in the final at Beijing last year and, by winning his opening 6 matches here, has recorded his longest Tour-level winning streak. His previous best Tour-level winning streak was winning 19 consecutive matches from the 2023 Davis Cup Final 8 through the quarterfinals at 2024 Indian Wells-1000. He would become the first player to record a streak of 21 Tour-level match-wins since Djokovic won 22 consecutive matches from 2021 Belgrade through the quarterfinals at Tokyo 2020 Olympic Tennis Event in 2021.
- The Australian Open is Sinner's most successful Grand Slam event in terms of matches won and finals reached.

- By reaching his 3rd Grand Slam final, Sinner has claimed sole ownership of 2nd place on the all-time list for most Grand Slam singles finals reached by an Italian player, man or woman – ahead of Jasmine Paolini and Francesca Schiavone. He is the only Italian player to have reached an Australian Open singles final. Pietrangeli, who reached 4 Grand Slam finals, is the only Italian player to have reached more Grand Slam singles finals than Sinner.
- At the Grand Slams in 2024, in addition to his titles at the Australian Open and US Open, Sinner reached the semifinals at Roland Garros (l. Alcaraz) and the quarterfinals at Wimbledon (l. Medvedev).
- Sinner won 8 titles in 2024, becoming the first player to win 8 or more men's singles titles in a season since Andy Murray in 2016. In addition to his titles at the Australian Open and US Open, he also won the titles at Rotterdam (d. Alex de Minaur), Miami-1000 (d. Dimitrov), Halle (d. Hubert Hurkacz), Cincinnati-1000 (d. Frances Tiafoe), Shanghai-1000 (d. Djokovic) and the ATP Finals (d. Fritz). He reached the quarterfinals or better at all 15 tournaments he contested in 2024.
- Sinner won 73 of the 79 matches he contested in 2024. In addition to his defeats at Roland Garros and Wimbledon, he also reached the final at Beijing (l. Alcaraz), the semifinals at Indian Wells-1000 (l. Alcaraz) and Monte Carlo-1000 (l. Stefanos Tsitsipas) and the quarterfinals at Madrid-1000, where he gave a walkover to Felix Auger-Aliassime due to a right hip injury, and Montreal-1000 (l. Andrey Rublev). He withdrew from the Paris 2024 Olympic Tennis Event due to tonsillitis. He did not contest a tournament prior to the Australian Open this season.
- Sinner has won 2 of the 4 five-set matches he has contested at the Australian Open. Both of his victories in 5-set matches here were comebacks from 0-2 down, the only successful comebacks from 0-2 down in his career to date – against Fucsovics in the 3rd round in 2023 and Medvedev in the final last year. His 2 defeats in 5-set matches here came against Denis Shapovalov in the 1st round in 2021 and against Stefanos Tsitsipas in the round of 16 in 2023. He has a 6-9 win-loss record in 5-set matches at Tour-level overall.
- Sinner became world No. 1 for the first time following Roland Garros last year and has remained there since then. He began his 32nd week as world No. 1 on Monday. He will remain world No. 1 following the Australian Open regardless of the result today.
- Sinner reached a career-high junior ranking of No. 133 and did not contest the boys' singles events at any of the Grand Slam tournaments. His best result as a junior was reaching the quarterfinals as a wild card at the Grade A Trofeo Bonfiglio event in Milan in 2018 (l. Naoki Tajima).
- Sinner led Italy to their 3rd Davis Cup title in 2024, successfully defending their title from 2023. He won all 4 matches he played across singles and doubles at the Final 8 Knockout Stage in Malaga in November. He made his Davis Cup debut in 2021 and has an 15-4 overall win-loss record in the competition. As hosts, Italy have received a wild card to the 2025 Davis Cup Final 8 Knockout Stage in Bologna in November.
- Sinner is coached by Simone Vagnozzi and Darren Cahill.

- ZVEREV is bidding to win his first Grand Slam title. This is his 10th Australian Open appearance and his 36th Grand Slam overall.
- Zverev is bidding to become the 2nd German player in history to win the Australian Open men's singles title – after Boris Becker, who won the title here in 1991 and 1996. He would also become the 4th German player in history to win an Australian Open singles title – after Becker, Steffi Graf (who won the women's singles title here in 1988, 1989, 1990 and 1994) and Angelique Kerber (who won the women's singles title here in 2016).
- Zverev is bidding to become the 5th German player in history to win a Grand Slam men's singles title – and the 7th German player to win a Grand Slam singles title. He would become the first German player to win a Grand Slam men's singles title since Becker at the 1996 Australian Open and the first German player to win a Grand Slam singles title since Kerber won the title at 2018 Wimbledon.
