

2025 WIMBLEDON MEN'S WHEELCHAIR SINGLES FINAL NOTES Sunday 13 July

NO. 1 TOKITO ODA (JPN) v NO. 2 ALFIE HEWETT (GBR)

Head-to-head: Oda leads 11-9

An 21st meeting for Oda and Hewett, their 7th at a Grand Slam and their 2nd at Wimbledon. All 6 of their previous Grand Slam meetings have come in finals. Oda defeated Hewett in the final here in 2023 and leads the head-to-head at the Grand Slams 4-2 overall.

Oda and Hewett have split the last 9 Grand Slam men's wheelchair singles titles between them – and have played each other in 6 of those 9 finals.

- Lefthander ODA is bidding to win his 2nd Wimbledon title on his 4th Wimbledon appearance. This is his 13th Grand Slam appearance overall.
- Oda is bidding to win his 6th Grand Slam singles title. In addition to his title here in 2023, he also won the titles at Roland Garros in 2023 (d. Hewett), 2024 (d. Gustavo Fernandez) and 2025 (d. Hewett), and at the 2024 Australian Open (d. Hewett).
- After winning his 3rd consecutive title at Roland Garros last month, Oda is bidding to become the first player to win the men's wheelchair singles titles at both Roland Garros and Wimbledon in the same year on multiple occasions. In 2023, he became the 3rd player to win the men's wheelchair singles titles at both Roland Garros and Wimbledon in the same year after Fernandez in 2019 and Shingo Kunieda in 2022.
- Oda is also bidding to become the 3rd Japanese player to win 6 or more Grand Slam wheelchair singles titles after Kunieda (28 Grand Slam singles titles) and Yui Kamiji (10). Mie Yaosa is the only other Japanese player to win a Grand Slam wheelchair singles title, winning the 2005 Australian Open women's wheelchair singles title.
- By winning the title at 2023 Roland Garros aged 17 years 33 days, Oda became the youngest player to win a Grand Slam singles title (in any discipline excluding juniors) since the 1997 US Open, when Martina Hingis won the women's singles title aged 16 years 342 days. He also became the youngest man in history to win a Grand Slam singles title in any discipline.
- By winning the title here in 2023 aged 17 years 69 days, Oda became the youngest player to win a Wimbledon singles title (in any discipline excluding juniors) since 1997, when Hingis won the women's singles title aged 16 years 279 days. He also became the youngest man in history to win a Wimbledon singles title in any discipline.

- Oda is contesting his 8th Grand Slam final. In addition to his 5 Grand Slam titles, he finished runner-up at the Australian Open in 2023 and 2025, falling to Hewett on both occasions.
- Oda has won 3 singles titles in 2025 at the Melbourne Wheelchair Open (AUS) (d. Hewett), the Japan Open (JPN) (d. Martin de la Puente) and Roland Garros. He finished runner-up at the Australian Open in the only other individual event he contested his defeat to Hewett in the final is the only singles match he has lost in 2025. He did not contest a grass court event prior to Wimbledon this year.
- Oda has also won 8 doubles titles, most recently alongside Takuya Miki at the 2024 Japan Open. He has contested 6 Grand Slam doubles finals, losing on all 6 occasions including at Wimbledon in 2023 and 2024.
- Oda became the youngest player ever to win the Paralympic men's singles gold medal at Paris 2024.
 Aged 18 years 123 days, he defeated Hewett in the final to become the 3rd Japanese player to win a Paralympics singles gold medal in any wheelchair tennis category after Kunieda, who won the men's singles gold medal at Beijing 2008, London 2012 and Tokyo 2020, and Kamiji, who won the women's singles gold medal at Paris 2024. He also won the men's wheelchair doubles silver medal alongside Takuya Miki, falling to Hewett/Reid in the gold medal match.
- Oda became world No. 1 for the first time after winning the title at 2023 Roland Garros. Aged 17 years 35 days, he became the youngest man in history to hold the No. 1 ranking in any senior tennis discipline. He has been ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 since reaching his first Grand Slam final at the 2023 Australian Open and plays here at No. 1.
- Oda is coached by Yuya Okado.
- HEWETT is bidding to win his 2nd Wimbledon title on his 10th Wimbledon appearance. This is his 34th Grand Slam appearance overall.
- Hewett is bidding to win his 11th Grand Slam title and claim sole ownership of 5th place on the list for most Grand Slam wheelchair singles titles, ahead of Yui Kamiji.

Kunieda), at the Australian Open in 2021 (I. Gerard), 2022 (I. Kunieda), and 2024 (I. Oda), at Wimbledon in 2022 (I. Kunieda) and 2023 (I. Oda), and at Roland Garros in 2023 and 2025 (I. Oda).
- Prior to Wimbledon this year, Hewett won his 4th grass court title at the British Open Roehampton (GBR) (d. Fernandez).

- Hewett's best results in 2025 are winning 5 titles. In addition to his titles at the Australian Open and Roehampton, he also won the titles at the Cajun Classic (USA) (d. De La Puente), Munich (GER) (d. Fernandez) and Rome (ITA) (d. Ruben Spaargaren). He finished runner-up at the Melbourne Wheelchair Open (AUS) (I. Oda) and reached the semifinals at the Victorian Wheelchair Open (AUS) (I. Fernandez).
- Hewett has also won 91 doubles titles including 23 Grand Slam doubles titles, all of which have come alongside Reid. He and Reid won the doubles title at Wimbledon in 2016-18, 2021 and 2023-24 but fell to De La Puente/Ruben Spaargaren in the doubles final this year
- Hewett is a 5-time Paralympic medallist. He has won 2 silver medals in men's wheelchair singles, reaching the final at both Rio 2016 (I. Reid) and Paris 2024 (I. Oda). He won a gold medal alongside Reid in men's doubles at Paris 2024, with the pair having previously won silver medals at both Rio 2016 and Tokyo 2020.
- Hewett reached the world No. 1 ranking for the first time in January 2018. He was the youngest player in history to hold the men's No. 1 ranking until Oda became world No. 1 in June 2023 aged 17. Hewett has been ranked inside the Top 10 since September 2016. He plays here at No. 2.
- Hewett is coached by Craig Allen.
