Where we process your personal data on the basis of legitimate interests, you can request a copy of the balancing test for that data processing using the contact details set out at the beginning of this notice.

As part of our responsibility to ensure the safety and integrity of our Tours and related programmes, the ITF may process personal data relating to criminal convictions and offences. This may occur, for example, when conducting background checks for safeguarding purposes, assessing eligibility for participation, or complying with legal and regulatory obligations.

This processing is carried out in accordance with Article 6 of the UK GDPR and Schedule 1 of the Data Protection Act 2018, under the condition of substantial public interest, specifically for the purpose of safeguarding children and individuals at risk.

We ensure that:

- criminal offence data is only collected where strictly necessary and relevant;
- access is restricted to authorised personnel with appropriate training.
- robust security measures are in place to protect the data; and
- data is retained only for as long as necessary and in line with our retention policies.

If you have any questions about how we process criminal offence data, or wish to exercise your data protection rights, please contact us at dataprotectionofficer@itftennis.com.

6. How we use your personal data to make automated decisions

Sometimes we will make an automated decision on the basis of your personal data. These help to ensure that the management of our competitions is quick, fair and efficient. The types of automated decisions we make are:

- to calculate your ranking and determine entry into tournaments;
- to prevent you from entering a tournament if you have unpaid fines (as per the regulations), have not completed the Tennis Integrity Protection Programme, or are otherwise prevented from entering.

These are made pursuant to the contract we have with you regarding your IPIN registration and compliance with the applicable Tours regulations.

You can ask us to review any automated decision that we have made taking into account any additional information you wish to provide to us.

7. Marketing

We may ask you, when you provide us with your personal data, if you are happy for us to contact you by telephone, post, email or SMS about products and services offered by us which we think may be of interest to you.

If you do not agree to this, we will not use your personal data for this purpose.

We will use your personal data to enable us to provide you with information that is most relevant to you.

If, at any time, you change your preferences and either do wish to receive such communications or wish us to stop sending you such communications you can let us know by one of the following methods:

1. log in to your IPIN account and check or uncheck the communication preferences options under the heading 'Personal Details' in the 'My Profile' section.
2. email us at dataprotectionofficer@itftennis.com and we'll be happy to contact you to help change your preferences. (As this isn't a secure channel, please don't include any personal details in any emails sent to this address.)
3. click the 'Update your details' or 'Unsubscribe' link on any marketing emails that we send you.

8. Who we share your personal data with

Your personal data may be shared with ITF Limited, registered in the Bahamas, and our other group companies. Hosting and storage of your personal data takes place at the ITF's secure data storage facilities in Roehampton and Slough (United Kingdom), and also on our Hosted Service Provider platforms (Microsoft's Office 365 and Azure cloud hosting platforms). All data is stored in the UK or European Union.

We may share your personal data with:

- you and your representatives and agents and other persons you ask us to share your data with;
- organisations engaged in the process of making or receiving payments on our behalf (including WorldPay);
- National Associations and Regional Associations;
- the other tennis governing bodies – ATP, WTA, the Grand Slam Board, Tennis Australia, French Tennis Federation, Wimbledon, and United States Tennis Association;
- anti-doping organisations, such as the World Anti-Doping Association, your national anti-doping organisation and our appointed anti-doping service provider;
- the International Olympic Committee and International Paralympic Committee;

- Tournament Organisers and officials;
- medical experts, expert risk assessors, external investigators and any other experts or advisors that the ITF engages under its Rules and Regulations in order to investigate and resolve any disciplinary issues or potential breaches of our Rules and Regulations and Codes of Conduct;
- sports disciplinary, safeguarding and/or eligibility bodies and/or panels that have responsibility under the regulations, rules, policies and/or procedures to hear requests, cases, appeals, and applications, including the International Tennis Integrity Agency, the Independent Tribunal (currently run by Sport Resolutions UK), the Safeguarding Panel (currently run by Sport Resolutions UK), the Court of Arbitration for Sport, and ITF Medical Panel;
- our sports data partners (including Infront) for commercial use (such as creating editorial content, or betting markets);
- our commercial partners (including TennisPoint and OFX) for commercial use (such as offering you discounts on tennis-related products) if you consent to receive information from ITF partners;
- our platform services providers that deliver ITF initiatives, e.g. the ITF World Tennis Number (hosted by ClubSpark Group Ltd), ITFUNO (by Crionet);
- Teamworks Innovations UK Limited - a third-party organisation that manage the Athlete Management System (AMS) on our behalf;
- other players who request access to their Player Analysis Technology (“PAT”) data but only if your personal and/or PAT data is bundled with that data. Please note that we do not hold this data but rather instruct our sports data partner to provide the PAT data requested directly to the player;
- third parties as is strictly necessary for the effective application and enforcement of rules, regulations, policies and procedures;
- any person, organisation or authority as is required by applicable law(s); and
- our advisers, auditors, agents and suppliers who act or may act on our behalf.

Some of these third parties will act as a processor on behalf of the ITF, and only on our instruction. Others will be a separate data controller in respect of that personal data and will process your personal data in accordance with the applicable data protection laws relevant to that organisation.

Personal data may be shared with government authorities, courts, arbitrators and/or law enforcement agencies if mandated by law or if required for the legal protection of our legitimate interests in compliance with applicable laws.

9. How long we will hold your data

We will hold information about you only for as long as we need it for the purpose for which we collected it, which is as follows:

- We will retain and process information about you as long as you continue to hold an active IPIN membership or play in our Tours, participate in our competitions, log onto our websites, platforms or online portals or use our services (including engaging with emails, entering tournaments, registering for ITF events, making purchases or downloading content). We will keep your personal data for a reasonable period from the date you cease to have an account, login credentials or membership with us.
- where you have consented to us using your data for direct marketing purposes, we will process the data while you continue to engage with our emails, and for a period of 6 months from when you stop. If you ask us to stop processing your data for this purpose, we will keep a record of the fact that you have asked us not to send you direct marketing or to process your data indefinitely so that we can respect your request in future.

We may retain the data for longer where it is necessary for us to meet our legal and regulatory obligations. For example, personal data linked to disciplinary and/or eligibility cases under applicable regulations and policies, subject access requests, disputes, or safeguarding investigations will be kept for as long as it is necessary for those purposes, as each is applicable.

We also retain results of your participation in our competitions indefinitely, as historical records of the sport. We may publish this information publicly online, use this for research into the game, or share it with 3rd parties as outline above. Any special category data that we retain for research purposes shall be anonymised so that you are not identifiable, otherwise we shall seek your consent to retain and use your personal data for research purposes.

10. Your legal rights

You have a number of rights over your personal data processed by us. These include:

- access to, and correction of, incomplete, inaccurate or outdated personal data
- transmission of personal data to you or to another person or organisation
- erasure of personal data
- restriction to our processing of your personal data
- objection to processing personal data

If we receive a request from you to exercise any of the above rights, we may ask you to verify your identity before acting on the request; this is to ensure that your data is protected and kept secure.

The extent of these rights are limited by law and we may not act on part or all of your request(s) where the right(s) are not applicable. If we do not act on your request, we will explain our reasons why.

Please contact us through our Data Protection Officer or EU Representative if you require any further information or wish to make a request to exercise any of your rights under applicable Data Protection laws.

In most cases we will respond to your request within one month.

11. Sending your personal data outside the UK and the EEA

We may transfer and your data may be processed outside the United Kingdom (UK) and the European Economic Area (EEA). This includes:

- National Associations or Regional Associations or tournaments outside the EEA if you have entered a tournament taking place in that nation or region, or are otherwise associated with them;
- the ATP, WTA, United States Tennis Association and Tennis Australia;
- the International Tennis Integrity Agency; and
- World Anti-Doping Agency.

Where we transfer your data outside of the EEA, we will create and maintain appropriate safeguards so that your personal data is subject to the same standards and protections as when we are processing your personal information inside the EEA.

You can contact us for more information about this.

12. How to complain

Please contact us using the contact details in the “About Us” section above if you are unhappy with the outcome of any of your requests to exercise your rights, or how we handle your personal data.

You are also entitled to complain to the Information Commissioner’s Office via www.ico.org.uk.

13. Our Privacy Notice available in other formats

We can provide THIS Privacy Notice in large print, Braille and audio upon request.
