

ITF World Tennis Tour Acceptance Lists Explained:

To assist players with understanding the acceptance lists available within a players IPIN account and on the ITF Website we have provided the information below. Players should use IPIN as their official source for information, because the Website does not update as regularly as the IPIN account updates.

$15,000 Tournaments

At the entry deadline, players are accepted into tournaments based on the applicable System of Merit (order of priority for acceptance). Players are ordered on the Acceptance list and are classified as Main Draw, Main Draw Junior Reserved (JR), Qualifying, or are classified as Alternates or Junior Reserved (JR) Alternates.

Main Draw Direct Acceptance

Players are accepted first by ATP or WTA ranking, secondly by ITF World Tennis Ranking, then by Top 500 National Ranking and finally randomly for unranked players.

Depending on the week, some Main Draw Direct Acceptance lists will be filled entirely with ATP or WTA ranked players; in other weeks (usually those with a greater number of tournaments) some ITF-ranked players may be accepted into the Main Draw Direct Acceptance lists. This is also the case with the Qualifying lists.

Please see a sample list below. Many players have both an ATP/WTA ranking as well as an ITF World Tennis Ranking. The entry system will automatically place players in their best position, prioritising main draw over qualifying draw.

Main Draw Junior Reserved

Each Men's and Women's $15,000 tournament will accept up to 3 junior players into a Main Draw category called Main Draw Junior Reserved. These are players who have a Top 100 ITF Junior Ranking (also known as a Combined Ranking) and who were unable to be accepted into the Main Draw as a Direct Acceptance. Players that withdraw before the Freeze Deadline will be replaced by players on the Junior Reserved Alternates list.

Junior Reserved Alternates

The players listed on the Junior Reserved Alternates List will fill vacancies from withdrawals on the Junior Reserved List until the Freeze Deadline. These junior players will be listed on both the Junior Reserved Alternates List and the Alternates List. After the Freeze Deadline, the Junior Reserved Alternate List will no longer exist and will no longer be used to replace players who withdrawal from the Junior Reserved List.

In the example above, there is just one junior player eligible to be a junior reserved alternate.

Alternates List

Alternate players will be used to fill vacancies created by players who withdraw from Qualifying until the Freeze Deadline. After the Freeze Deadline, players that withdraw from the Qualifying list will be filled by players who sign-in with the ITF Supervisor at the tournament. Players that sign-in onsite will be accepted based on the order of the Acceptance List. All players not on the original list will be ordered after the Alternates who entered in advance.

$25,000 Tournaments

At the entry deadline, players are accepted into tournaments based on the applicable System of Merit (order of priority for acceptance). Players are ordered on the Acceptance list and are classified as Main Draw, Qualifying or Alternate.

Main Draw Direct Acceptance

Players are accepted first by ATP or WTA ranking, followed by ITF World Tennis Ranking, then by National Ranking and finally randomly for unranked players.

Depending on the week, some Main Draw Direct Acceptance lists will be filled entirely with ATP or WTA ranked players; in other weeks (usually those with a greater number of tournaments) some ITF-ranked players may be accepted into the Main Draw Direct Acceptance lists. This is also the case with the Qualifying lists.

Please see a sample list below. Many players have both an ATP/WTA ranking as well as an ITF World Tennis Ranking. The entry system will automatically place players in their best position, prioritising main draw over qualifying draw.

Women's $60,000 - $100,000 Tournaments

At the entry deadline, players are accepted into tournaments based on the applicable System of Merit (order of priority for acceptance). Players are ordered on the Acceptance list and are classified as Main Draw, Qualifying or Alternate.

Players may enter Women's $60,000, $80,000 or $100,000 as Main Draw Only (MDO) entrants. This allows a player to apply only for the Main Draw and will not be considered or accepted into the qualifying. Players will be considered for the Main draw up until the Freeze Deadline. At the Freeze Deadline "Main Draw Only" entries which have not moved into a singles Main Draw Acceptance List will be removed from all $6 $80,000 and $100,000 Acceptance Lists.

Main Draw Direct Acceptance

Players are accepted first by ATP or WTA ranking, followed by ITF World Tennis Ranking, then by National Ranking and finally randomly for unranked players.

Alternates List

Alternate players will be used to fill vacancies created by players who withdraw from Qualifying until the Freeze Deadline. After the Freeze Deadline, players that withdraw from the Qualifying list will be filled by players who sign-in with the ITF Supervisor at the tournament. Players that sign-in onsite will be accepted based on the order of the Acceptance List. All players not on the original list will be ordered after the Alternates who entered in advance.
