

The ITF has today announced the official team nominations (below) for the 46 teams competing in Davis Cup by Rakuten World Group I and World Group II Play-offs on 4-5 March 2022.

In addition to the 23 ties taking place in the World Group I and World Group II Play-offs, 12 Qualifier ties will also be taking place on 4-5 March – a total of 35 Davis Cup ties played on a home-and-away basis around the world next week.

Winning nations in the World Group I Play-offs will contest World Group I ties in September, alongside the 12 losing nations from the Qualifiers. Losing nations in the World Group I Play-offs and winning nations in the World Group II Play-offs will contest World Group II ties in September. Losing nations in the World Group II Play-offs will compete at a regional Group III event to be held later in 2022.
